

SHE CAN BUILDS GLOBAL WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP

OUR MISSION Build female leadership in post-conflict countries—Rwanda, Cambodia, Liberia, and Guatemala, so far — by equipping and empowering driven young women with the education, mentorship support, and leadership training needed to change their nations and the world.

OUR IMPACT

Since 2011 SHE-CAN Global has grown to influential levels:

- 132 low-opportunity women have won full-ride scholarships
- 65 graduates are emerging leaders
- Over 600 mentors and volunteers support SHE-CAN scholars
- $40+ million in scholarship funds have been awarded to date
- 36 U.S. colleges such as Bucknell, Georgetown, and Dartmouth are enriched by SHE-CAN Scholars
- 52 organizations hosted interns including Boeing, Cisco, Genentech, and Vital Voices
- 13 U.S. colleges have joined the SHE-CAN Scholarship Coalition by committing to fund full-ride scholarships:

- Babson College
- Beloit College
- Bennington College
- Bentley University
- Bucknell University
- Denison University
- Gettysburg College
- Lafayette College
- Occidental College
- Reed College
- Rhodes College
- Scripps College
- Syracuse University

HOW WE DO IT

Our program begins with intensive recruiting in each country to identify low-income young women who are passionate about changing their nations. Each scholar is matched with a team of five mentors who help her with her college application and serve as a support system throughout her leadership journey.

This comprehensive approach produces cohorts of well-educated, well-connected, and empowered women graduates who return home poised to bring their unique female perspectives and voices to the problems in their countries

Invests Deeply in Each Scholar

SHE-CAN Global is a lot more than a scholarship: it's an intensive, well-tuned leadership program full of services, support, and love. Besides providing material items like dorm supplies and computers, SHE-CAN Global provides all the things a potential leader needs that money can't buy: the support of caring mentors, endless workshops about growing as a change-agent, and the security of knowing that our experienced staff is there throughout her journey. Below is a summary of how we invest in each scholar.
