JOIN THE IMPACT LEADERSHIP CIRCLE

INVESTING IN WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP GLOBALLY

The Impact Leadership Circle is a community of our most generous donors who are investing in SHE-CAN Scholars and empowering them to become transformational leaders after graduation. With a pledge of $25,000 or more annually for five years, you'll be a part of a group of donors providing the foundation we need to build women's leadership worldwide.

You'll also celebrate with us at SHE-CAN's annual gala, Resilient & Rising, bringing friends to share in the joy, all while knowing your commitment is not only sponsoring the next generation of women leaders, but also inspiring other donors to step up and follow your lead.

OUR MISSION

SHE-CAN accelerates and equips high-achieving women with low-opportunity from conflict and climate impacted countries to become transformational leaders who, individually and collectiveley, change their nations and create pathways for future female leaders.

YOUR INVESTMENT IN ACTION:
THE POWER OF YOUR PARTNERSHIP

When you join the Impact Leadership Circle, you are doing more than making a financial contribution; you are becoming a foundational architect of global equity. Your five-year pledge provides the sustainable financial bedrock that allows SHE-CAN to scale securely, launch bold new initiatives, and pivot swiftly to meet the needs of our Scholars.

OUR IMPACT

Since 2011 SHE-CAN Global has grown to influential levels:

144 high potential women have won full-ride scholarships

74 graduates are emerging leaders

600+ mentors & volunteers support SHE-CAN Scholars

$44+ million in scholarship funds have been awarded to date

38 U.S. colleges such as Bucknell, Syracuse, Beloit, and Northwestern are enriched by SHE-CAN Scholars

60+ organizations have hosted interns including Boeing, Cisco, Genentech, and Vital Voices

19 U.S. colleges have joined or are current members of the SHE-CAN College Coalition by committing to fund full-ride scholarships

WHY JOIN THE CIRCLE

You're a Vital Partner in our Work: You'll stay closely connected through regular updates and strategic discussions, and be invited to special dinners, calls, and lunches to get updates on the progress of our Scholars. You'll be invited to join us on recruiting trips and help us launch new initiatives like Impact Summer and the SHE-CAN Collective.

A Grounding Sense of Purpose: In a complex world, supporting these young women offers a clear, tangible point of impact. It provides the deep satisfaction of knowing you are directly moving the needle on global equity.

An Expanded Worldview: Proximity to these resilient young leaders shifts your perspective. Witnessing how they navigate and overcome systemic barriers introduces a unique inspiration that often carries over into your own life and work.

The Quiet Pride of Legacy: There is a lasting fulfillment in knowing you belong to the small, dedicated group that anchored this work. Long after our Scholars graduate, you carry the quiet knowledge that you helped reshape the trajectory of their communities.

Investing in women in leadership positively impacts global economic development. Women invest 90% of their income in their families and communities compared to 35% for men which leads to better education for children, healthier households and stronger communities.
